

PROPEL YOUR TEAMS TO PEAK PERFORMANCE

Success Playbook Coach & Inspirational Speaker

Deb Rubin is an accomplished speaker who has presented on national stages to high-level executive audiences across the US. She provides more than a mere presentation. She offers an experience that lets the audience, or your organization walk away forever changed with a new way of thinking, and better prepared to achieve any goal or conquer any obstacle. Ms. Rubin can be hired for your next keynote address, breakout session, webinar, or boot camp.

Achievements

Deb has over 25 years of experience in the financial services industry. In every role, she has successfully managed teams, exceeded sales goals, and spoken at national programs and industry events. She's also a leadership and strategy coach having mentored hundreds of financial services professionals in their pursuit to achieve less stress and more success and fulfillment in business and life. Deb also runs acclaimed group programs and offers private coaching. She's a Certified Professional Coach and an Energy Leadership Index Master Practitioner and holds FINRA 7, 63, 24 and CFP® designations. Deb earned her BA in economics from Barnard College of Columbia University (Magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa).

Speaking Topics

- Art of Getting Stuff Done
- Overcoming Roadblocks
- Energy Leadership and Unlocking Your Personal Power
- Stress to Success
- Values to Victory: 5 Steps to Align your Professional Life with Purpose, Passion, and Profit

Let's Connect

“I've continuously sought trained, informed, and relevant advisors to serve as speakers in forums of women in leadership roles. Deb Rubin, Life and Success Coach, is one at the top of the charts. She has an audience-first mentality where she aligns and develops the theme and topic to deliver the most impactful message and influences tangible take-aways. The feedback from attendees is most favorable in the knowledge and tools shared for real actionable practices.”

Shelia Reed, Co-chair
Women in Pensions Network
Co-chair, 2020 Women on Boards